Experience

Catharina is a dual-qualified Chartered Trade Mark Attorney and European Patent Attorney, with over ten years' experience in assisting clients with registration and protection of their intellectual property rights.

She regularly advises charities, membership organisations and commercial entities on trade mark clearance searching, registration, opposition and enforcement. Catharina also specialises in management of large international trade mark and patent portfolios, as well as drafting, prosecuting and opposing European mechanical patents. She joined BWB after co-heading the London office of an international boutique IP law firm, and brought with her a wealth of experience from the commercial sector, particularly fashion and consumer products.

Her current and past clients include The Institute of Masters of Wine, Girl Guiding, Giorgio Armani group, De'Longhi, the organizing committees of the Paralympic Games, Battersea Dogs & Cats Home, Cruelty Free International, Samaritans, Crimestoppers, Shelter, Sight Savers, ToyWatch, and many others.
